

Payments via QR codes

Use QR codes to collect payments when meeting clients in person.

Your clients can scan the unique QR code using their smartphone and complete the payment when visiting you in the office.

Direct all payments through one, central portal, however your clients choose to pay

Reduce the cost and hassle compared to maintaining physical card machines

Easily reconcile payments against your client details and references